Following the announcement on 21 March by the Kurdistan Workers' Party (PKK) that it would withdraw beyond Turkey's borders, the first group reportedly arrived in the Kurdistan region of Iraq on 14 May. In a statement of 9 May from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Iraq and in letters dated 17 May to the United Nations and the League of Arab States, the Government of Iraq welcomed the peace initiative, but denounced the withdrawal into Iraqi territory. In response, in a letter to the Security Council on 3 June, the Permanent Representative of Turkey to the United Nations requested the Government of Iraq to ensure that the necessary means were put in place to put an end to any terrorist activities conducted by the Kurdistan Workers' Party from Iraqi territory.
